

Whose Fish is it Anyway?

Party Quirks

Equipment

Laptop

Sound system

Door bell or hooter

Table and chair for Chairman

Chairs informally place in line for four participants

Chairman

Hello and welcome to

Whose Fish is It Anyway?

An acting gameshow for fun people

Today we come from the genteel Warwickshire town of Royal Leamington

Spa

Would you please welcome Sandra Brogan, Joseph Gurney, Mike Coles, John Smith and Wayne Fenton!!

Applause

Our first game is Party Quirks

One of the team is a host at a party or group night. The others are guests with certain behaviours. The guests will act their behaviour until host guesses what the quirk is.

Sandra will you be the host.

What sort of party is it - Audience?

Team will you open envelope describing your quirk or characteristic

Each one of you must wait for the hooter or buzzer to enter the room

In turn, host engages them in conversation until she guesses their quirk

QUIRKS are

Ignore

Discriminate

Clique

Letch / Envy

Belittle

Once everyone has been identified with a greater or lesser degree of help from audience

Chair; Would you stay at this party, group night if you were treated like this?

Project Quirks

What are the positive quirks that are the opposite?

We are all guilty of having bad habits in talking to a friend or stranger

Do we get the best out of strangers, colleagues and friends?